

They say you can't go home again.

Well, at Pine Heights
maybe you can.

When Charlie Morse of Brattleboro needed physical therapy after his bout with pneumonia, he looked no farther than Pine Heights at Brattleboro.

Close to home and staffed by a team of therapist's expert in Short-Stay Rehabilitation, Charlie's confidence in Pine Heights was confirmed six weeks later...when he returned home, good as new.

Like many successful former Short-Stay Rehabilitation residents, Charlie still drops by Pine Heights...as a visitor.
